

OUR MISSION

We unite people separated by war and tragedy, rebuild loving families for orphans and widows, and create networks of local churches and rescue centers.

OUR MODEL

Kinship Projects are safe homes for orphaned and abandoned children and a place where destitute widows are given shelter and friendship. First and foremost, a Kinship Project is a church led by an indigenous pastor that serves the entire community.

WHY

Because we believe that those forgotten by society deserve a family and a place to belong.

WHO

Orphans, widows, refugees, and disenfranchised people

WHERE

Burkina Faso, Cambodia, Dominican Republic, Honduras, India, Indonesia, Kenya, Pakistan, Thailand, and Uganda

HOW

Kinship Projects provide 24/7 shelter care, foster care, feeding programs, music therapy and worship, medical outreach, primary and secondary schools, ESL programs, and business opportunities for women.
